

Here is the outer door and screen door both fully opened and held in the open position against the trailer by the clip on the left. The clip on the top, above the door lever, hold the screen door in place when you want to keep it locked to the outer door. The clip on the lower right will latch to the door opening/frame when you are using the screen door only. See next image which shows that clip in use to keep the screen door closed.

