Air Forums app for Android

The last "upgrade" leaves a lot to be desired as far as I'm concerned. While I've finally figured out how to use, it no longer notifies me of new posts in subscribe threads like the previous iteration did. 😞 Is there something I'm missing here? Wouldn't be the first time. 😊

In space, no one can hear you scream . . .
